

ASG/IM Student Officer Application

General Response Questions

Kerian J. Trice

1. What do you want to be an ASG/IM officer and what do you expect from an ASG/IM position?

I would like to be an ASG/IM officer because I believe that I would be an asset to the organization, and I could also learn a great amount about the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences. As an ASG/IM officer, I expect to further develop myself professionally, and as a leader.

2. What qualities do you possess that would allow you to be successful as an ASG/IM officer and what past experiences do you have that relate to an ASG/IM officer position?

The qualities that I possess that would allow me to be successful as an ASG/IM officer include: compassion, accountability, hard-working, dedication, focus, cooperation and determination. I have experience in many capacities of student government and other scholastic organizations, serving as president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

3. How does the ASG/Intramurals position impact a student's life?

I believe that it is very important for students to be engaged in what is going on throughout their scholastic campuses, in order to be successful. ASG/IM officer allows students from all disciplines to connect with one another, and allows for students to be active in recreational activities sponsored by the University.

4. Please list three goals you would like to accomplish by the completion of your first year as an officer. How will you accomplish these goals?

Goals:

-I would like to support and strengthen the quality of student life at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences. I could accomplish this goal by listening to the student body's concerns, and would be an advocate to ensure their concerns are recognized.

-I want to increase diversity in ASG/IM. I will do this by using my platform to encourage people of all ethnicities to join in on the great events and opportunities at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences.

-I would like to ensure that the ASG/IM leadership is effective, diligent and transparent. I could ensure this occurs by being present, on-time and ready to work in any capacity necessary.
